Everyone's An Author With Readings (Second Edition)

Synopsis

A rhetoric that bridges the gap between the writing students already do in social media and other nonacademic contexts and the writing they're expected to do in college—all within a strong rhetorical framework. Built on the keystones of rhetoric, Everyone's an Author provides a strong foundation for authoring in the digital age: in college essays, but also on Twitter; in print, but also online; with words, but also with sound, video, and images. It shows students that the rhetorical skills they already use in social media, in their home and religious communities, at work and in other nonacademic contexts are the same ones they'll need to succeed in college. Examples and readings drawn from across multiple media and dealing with topics that matter to students today make this a book that everyone who takes first-year writing will relate to.

Customer Reviews

My rental arrived faster than I did expect. I actually enjoyed the material that the textbook provided. It was for my English A111 class this semester but I decided to actually purchase it instead because it had so much useful content for when I write my future essays in my other classes. Everyone's an Author with Readings (Second Edition)

This is a great writing textbook, I am glad we got it for my class, and the rental came in wonderful condition!

Served it's purpose for college course for a friend.

Great for my class
