Customer Reviews

Takes beginner through steps that are clear and meaningful in progressing as a harp player. This is a technical approach that would make good counterpoint to the freestyle approach of John Poppa available on YouTube.com

To avoid having my grandkids just blow into their harmonica's, I knew I had to purchase a training tool. Since they can play the piano, they knew fundamentals of music but nothing about the harmonica. I'm pleased with this music book. It has a sturdy cover and the pages are sturdy so can take abuse from usage. So far this book is doing what it's supposed to do. My grandkids are working thru it and actually playing some real songs.

An easy guide. A good book.

A valuable companion for harp beginners, it offers many easy examples and you can immediately start playing! It also includes the audio which is awesome.

I like it. I do prefer having a CD from the publisher but downloading was not too much of a problem.

Good book for me. I'm a beginner and this book helps quite a bit. Plus it will take me through intermediate and advanced.

the audio doesn't work.

Learning to play takes patience, but it's good teacher.
