Helen Rowe is a children's book illustrator with a background in ceramic design and greeting cards. She began with children's books by adapting some of her greeting card characters into scenes, and has been enjoying working on them ever since. She lives in Wiltshire, England.

Bought this book for my daughter who LOVES pop-up books and she doesn't ever want to put it down. The pop-ups are decently sturdy so unless your child like to hulk smash pop-ups they should stay in no problem!

This is an adorable pop-up book. My son enjoys reading it. I do wish that there were a few more pages, perhaps adding other farm animals like ducks, goats, etc.. Apart from the shortness, it's a great book!

So my daughter will make me read it like 5 times in a row!

Great book! My 18 month nephew loves it!

daughter loves it

grand-daughter loves it- only problem is she want to tear out the animals!!!

Christmas gift

Arrived quickly. Book is colorful and sturdy. This was a gift for a friend's toddler, her first pop up book. She loved it, immediately wanted to read it over and over.
