addition to "Songs of the Seder," they have co-authored "Becoming Free: A New Look at the Ancient Lesson: A Haggadah for Passover."

The music is simple, easy playing. No Hebrew is included, but translation is included. The transliteration used is antiquated, and hard to read. They should have followed standard transliteration practices for all languages.

Very basic and bare-bones arrangements, but useful at seders and for people without much musical experience. All the important songs are included.

The essential Passover music book. The quintessential Passover music book.

This is a fabulous book and exactly what I was looking for. I'm also thrilled that it has an accompanying CD that matches exactly. I am leading a seder this year for a church group who has never heard any of the songs before, so I wanted the traditional melodies, easy to follow sheet music, and easy guitar chords. This is perfect! I'm so pleased.

"SONGS OF THE SEDER fills a great need.... a gem of a book."
