Mike Venezia is the author of several nonfiction books for children.

The cover of the book says Joyhn Philip Sousa but when I opened the book, it was about Tchaikovsky.

I used this book in K-8 music classes for teaching about John Philip Sousa. It covered a lot of content with a good mix of pictures and cartoons. My students and I enjoyed learning more about Sousa. I will be using more books in this series by Mike Venezia!

As a teacher, I love this series! My goal is to teach my 3rd graders about the famous artists and composers. This series makes it easy, fun, and interesting!

Great for young readers.

The item was received in nice condition and my kids are enjoying it.

Why?

Informative, entertaining, a good resource for teaching in the classroom or for learning at home.

These books are a great way to introduce music appreciation to anyone.

I am using this series of books as part of a homeschool curriculum. I let him listen to Sousa music on Utube, and it is working very well. We are now working on the book about Brahms.
