Miriam Hathaway is an author and marketing expert in Olympia, Washington. Known for her loud laugh and cheerful spirit, she's also hardworking and smart—focusing her talents on marketing, publishing, and her family of two young children, incorrigible dog Kuma, and husband Lee.

Grandmas love to spoil their grandchildren, and the greatest gift they can give is that of their love and support. While we can only hope Grandma will be around forever, this book provides a chance for Grandma to write down some of the most poignant memories of her life as a woman and as a

Grandma. The journal is short enough that Grandma can work on it a little bit at a time so she can capture all the beautiful memories and joy of her life. This is a beautiful gift that we're going to give her this Christmas and hopefully keep a tradition of looking at it each Christmas.
