"While originally conceived as a parody on a certain familiar bestseller, this funny resource actually contains plenty of helpful advice..." (Kate Wallace, Atlanta Parent magazine) "...full of sound advice any father-to-be will appreciate." (Brett Cohen, Cape Cod Times)

Great gift for the daddy of the new baby. The original version is great so adding a book for daddy is certainly helpful. Now the problem with be to get the daddy to actually read it!

Bought for husband because this pregnancy was my 3rd and his 1st..... and hes not much of a reader, not into the normal selection of pregnancy books. Ended up reading it myself and laughing my butt off at the same time. There is humor, yet educational facts. Also the author is sure to educate the readers on how to tend to expecting mama, insight for the expecting father on moods and emotions, how and why to be sympathetic.... and explains things in "man" terms so that the expecting father truly understands. I loved reading my favorite parts to my husband so we could both laugh. Do not recommend if you get easily offended because this is a book from a mans view so there are some parts that truth is spoken about a hormonal pregnant mama haha. Keeping definately to read with last pregnancy and will recommend to all my friends.

Gave as a gift as to my son to help with being a new father. Seems like he read it and is genuinely interested as a result of this gift.

Got this for my husband and he LOVED it. I also gotta say, some of the tips that he learned (and uses) really help! (like he makes the bed without me asking..... its magical)

Not what I expected. It's filled with a lot of humor and I was hoping for something more educational for my husband

Unlike most of these attempts at humor and parody, this book is actually very funny. It's a good parody of What to Expect When You're Expecting, but you'll also find it funny even if you haven't read that book. My wife laughed a lot when she read it too.

My wife bought this for me to help with the pregnancy process knowing that I would lose enthusiasm reading one of "her" books. This book keeps everything lighthearted while still covering what you need to know, both the process of going through pregnancy, and how to prepare yourself and home for the little bundle of screaming pooping joy. This definitely helped through our pregnancy and birth (our, ha!) and I recommend it for anyone planning to have a baby, or actively pregnant.

very good info for father who is expecting a child with wife or girlfriend
