Syria, Iran, And Hezbollah: The Unholy Alliance And Its War On Lebanon (Hoover Institution Press Publications)

Synopsis

In a detailed sequel to Marius Deeb's authoritative Syria's Terrorist War on Lebanon and the Peace Process, he demonstrates how the coalition of Syria, Iran, and Hezbollah has used assassination, terrorism, and force against the peaceful and liberal democratic Cedar Revolution, trying to undermine its success in pushing the Syrian Army out of Lebanon and in winning the parliamentary elections of 2005 and 2009.

Customer Reviews

Marius Deeb, an Oxford-educated authority on Middle Eastern politics and history, in this sequel to his authoritative Syria's Terrorist War on Lebanon and the Peace Process, details the continued onslaught on Lebanon by the Syria, Iran, and Hezbollah axis, which uses assassinations, terrorism, and force, despite the triumph of the nonviolent and democratic Cedar Revolution that ended the Syrian occupation of Lebanon and won free parliamentary elections in 2005 and 2009. The chances for Lebanon to remain free, pluralistic, and open to the world are greater than ever as the Syria, Iran and Hezbollah axis falters with the inevitable demise of the Assad regime in Syria.

Marius Deeb has a doctorate from Oxford University and teaches Middle Eastern politics at the School of Advanced International Studies at Johns Hopkins University.

The author presents a one sided view that is highly controversial without giving any facts. This is very disappointing coming from an academic.
