Customer Reviews

A very enjoyable love story between the Elven Prince Keto and the vampire assistant Charlotte who had met many years before while in their teens one day and then hadn't seen each other for many decades. Charlotte at the age of eighteen due to her slim hips and potential for having a large vampire baby had to have a partial hysterectomy because of problems delivering the baby and the mother's death. She meets Keto later and falls in love with him, but he's require after taking the throne within two weeks to marry and start producing an heir. Charlotte doesn't have a womb but Keto is trying to help her grow one with his body DNA the basket can be grown. Esral his sister is having fertility problems too because her husband is a vampire and he doesn't have the elf DNA to impregnate her.

This book had be me crying, laughing, believing in giving second chances and fighting for another being if they mean that much to you!!! I was in awe at how the story pulled me one way, just to be yanked in the other direction right before Charlene pulled the rug right from under your feet and left you with your mouth hanging open with where she took this story!! It was amazing, and those words don't even feel like they are descriptive enough!!

My heart was breaking for Charlotte. All alone. No one to share her life with. The males all want children so they won't mate with female vampires who have all been sterilized. Such a drastic measure to take. Especially since recent events have made it possible for them to give birth. Keto is sweet and works hard to find a solution for his sister and for him. I thought Charlotte gave up too easily but I totally understand why. Good read.

I was so excited to see that another book was coming out in this series! This book was wonderful and it exceeded my expectations. The characters were very well developed and I found myself rooting for them to get their happy ending even when they encountered so many obstacles. This is a book that I will read over and over again. This would be a great spinoff for more elf stories!

I was so taken with the twists and turns in this story. The length that love will go for true love. To be able to walk away from your true love for the betterment of his people even though the heart is being shattered. It takes a strong person to do that. Great story line.

Charlene I have been waiting for this book and you did not disappoint! So glad Keto had his story and of all people for it to be Charlotte! Please continue with the series. Maybe have a few more books about the Elf characters, since Keto is making changes in his kingdom?

Not a book for anyone under 18. Ok now that is said. I love these books. They are always a great read for me after I read some of the heavy stuff. Charlotte and Keto's story is probably one of my favorites next to The Kings. Well done and keep these books coming out.

I am a Hugh fan of Charlene Hartnady!!! I read all of her books and love them all. I have read every one in this series and am ready to start the next one. I will continue to follow this author and I will recommend her to all of my fellow readers!
