Yourself's Bible Studies in Sunday schools, homeschool environments, and Christian schools. Janna's heart is for children to know and love God's Word.

I use this with my kids age 5-15. I skip some of the narration aimed at a younger audience and we have all loved what we have learned.

This is the second in this series we have purchased and we had loved them both. In depth Bible Study at a kid level. My son is using it in 8th grade and my friend's son uses the same book in 4th grade. Highly recommend this series.

My 10 year old has completed several of these Discover 4 Yourself Bible studies as part of her home school Bible. She is learning how to study the Bible inductively. These are well written studies.

I went through this book with my discipleship class (even though it's a kids book) and was glad for a fun change of pace. After I finished I took a friend through it.

My grandsons and I are really enjoying this bible study provided by one of the great bible teachers of all time- Kay Arthur. Not only are we learning about the names of God and all His attributes, we know that He loves us and knew us before the foundation of the world. Even if you are an adult, I highly recommend this study. We skip over the parts designed for little kids.

Amazing study taking us into God's Word! Was good for all ages! We have a large family with children ranging from 9 to 16. Even the adults enjoyed participating including Grandma!

This is good, but I wish they used the NIRV adventure bible for this. It was hard for my third grader to understand a lot of terms that we in the New American Standard version. I don't think we will use these anymore because I want my kids to really understand what they are reading.

I'm doing this study with my 8 year old. Great study! Presented in a fun way to keep him engaged.
