I bought this as a single lady. I loved the matter of fact tone because it wasn't condescending. Often, since I was late into the dating pool, I found most resources to assume the reader to know fundamentals I lacked. It was instructional without being patronizing. It is even a good read as a married lady.

Marie is really wonderful because she lives her life with the compassion and love she teaches. It's evident in her tone and language and it's really helped me to just chill and let things unfold. It's nice to know I'm not flawed. I'm only holding myself hostage with the belief that today is just a stepping stone. This is it! Thanks, Marie for your compassionate and lively work. I look forward to today with the solid belief now that the best is yet to come.

I like this book because it reminded me of what is true about myself.... Yes, there are things that I knew already, but did I really know them if I hadn't applied them yet? I was in search of an answer and stumbled upon this book, so I'm happy. I would recommend this to everyone who feels insecure about who they are and are letting it cripple them. Thank you M.F.

This book should not be called Make Every Man Want You.... It should be called Unleashing Your Irresistibility, which is a phrase Forleo uses a lot in this book. Yes, internalizing the words of this book, and more importantly, bringing them to life not just in your mind but in your life, WILL make others 'want' you, but it will do more than that- it will make YOU want to BE you. I think there's a lot to be gained from this book, both by people who want to be wanted, if you will, but also by people who would pass this book by because the title is somewhat unsophisticated. There are deep ideas here, written in such a fun and upbeat way that will make reading the book a really enjoyable, and perhaps even transformative, experience.

I really loved this book a couple of chapters in, but then I got bored with it. It felt trite and shallow to me and I had the impression that it was written without much thought or effort. It felt as if Forleo thought, "I need a book to build my credibility and business, so what can I throw together quickly just to get it out there." So I don't recommend this book because I don't think Forleo believes in it herself.

I have enjoyed reading this book it gave me some things to think about. It also put a smile on my face,

I thought I knew, but in this short book Marie lays it out as it is. Mark the "as it is", because things are what they are and I learned to make the business of it-ness my business. I wish I had read parts of this book when I was 9. Seriously. You might experience resistance to this book. I did. I didn't agree with a few things in it but then I trusted and let go and it was very eye opening. If you are a woman who thinks who knows how men, life and things work think again and gift yourself 90 minutes to read and realize what "is". Love, Elena

I read this book, because something I was doing wrong in my life. We know that feeling "what I do wrong?" , "why that doesn't work for me?" and another's questions like this. I was searching the answers, I need yet work with me. I am in a good way , and I want thanks in this way too Marie. Thank you, because after reading your books I see more clearly my mistakes and I can see how formidable I can be!
