Customer Reviews

Just be sure to note that this is in 1/2" scale and not 1/4". I'm a designer and work in 1/4" scale for furniture layouts so just be aware of the scale! I should have paid more attention myself when ordering! Good concept though...

Bought these for stocking stuffers for my daughters - They both seemed like they really wanted to get going and use them to rearrange their homes - I also used one of these to move my mother into assisted living - She's going from 2100 sq ft to 650 so this helped her pick which furniture would fit and what went or stayed

This layout kit allowed us to decide which furniture, we are downsizing, would come with us and where to place each piece efficiently. It was also enjoyable to decorate without a backache!

Really like this. Only thing that is not perfect is I was hoping for more grid pages. But includes a ton various sizes furniture.

Cut-outs are movable furniture pieces only. No fireplace, islands, etc. Mistake purchase this item. Cut-outs work best with the graph paper supplied. I wanted to use with house plans.

I wasn't as pleased with this item as I thought I would be. It was purchased to use for our homeschooled 16 year old. At the time of this purchase, we also purchased "Home Quick Planner", which was the real find for us. I purchased this with the intention of using it as a supplement to the "Home Quick Planner" after seeing it listed on as a "goes together" type of item. Unfortunately, the "Home Quick Planner" was scaled to $1/2"=1'$, and this item was scaled at $1/4"=1'$, so they really aren't good together. I was also wondering why they have the subtitle "From Stencils and Notepaper to Flowers and Napkin Folding", since that was not in MY edition, and my edition looks just like the picture in the ad. Also, the "Home Quick Planner" has detailed "window cling-type" stickers that you can take off and put back on easily, which is nicer than these cardstock punch-outs, which are very plain. I would suggest that you "look inside", on the listing, which I didn't do since I impulsively purchased it when listed it as a "goes together" item. After viewing the "look inside", you may decide that this is just what you want, and the price is very low. It may be nice for somebody who wants to invest a small amount of money to try their abilities at layouts. You may be very happy with it.

Disappointing. The product was hard to use Had to furniture items to graph paper. Would not recommend product. Wasted money.

OK but limited utility
