PreSchool-Grade 1 "This title pairs simple sentences with distinct visual clues. Fish swims down./Fish swims up./Fish swims upside down. Children will build their vocabulary through the repetition and basic concepts. The uncluttered, computer-generated illustrations of a smiling, wide-eyed fish and frog will help readers when they get stuck on a word. Tips for assisting beginning readers are included, and short introductions are provided for adults to help children anticipate what will happen in each chapter. A solid starting point for those who are just beginning to read." Melinda Piehler, Sawgrass Elementary School, Sunrise, FL Copyright © Reed Business

Great books for beginning readers! Can even study characters across books in the series!

My grandson is learning to read and he has really been enjoying this book!

Great read for kinders.

Very happy and my grandson is reading. I will definitely be ordering more!

We like the page where fish scares himself in the mirror.great stories.

Great for my new readers. They enjoy these books.

We love all of the Brand New Readers! They are easy for new readers and help build their reading confidence. Would HIGHLY recommend this whole series!

This book is a delight to share with any child from age 2 through experienced readers of 6 or seven. Wonderful illustrations cover about 80% of the page and show exactly what the very large print words say on the bottom 20% of the page. So, you can have fun sharing this book with a 2 year old and talk about the pictures. The book also uses concepts such as over and under, etc. Threes and fours can start connecting the pictures to the words. New readers of 4 to 7 years old will have great success with the short, 3 to 6 word sentences, and many visual clues in the illustrations. This is one of the best easy reader series I've seen in a long time. I'll be recommending it to the children and parents in the library where I work. I am also getting my own copies to share with my 2 year old grandson.
