Customer Reviews

Really good book! I admit my expectations were pretty high before reading it, but it stood up to most of them.... Not that long and it isn't too forced. Love the opinionated main protagonist. Although the end was kind of obvious from about the middle of the book.

Meg Cabot creates great fun fiction. This book was funny, fun, but gave insights for pre-teen, teens, & adults into important world-wide issues as well as feelings. Not enough books can go into feelings while keeping it light. All-American Girl is a fantastic story.

My sister has been reading the Princess Diaries series by Meg Cabot, and told me they were good. After finding this in a book store, I decided to try it out. I can highly relate to the feelings in this book, and it only took me a couple days to read the whole book. The story is about a middle child, Samantha Maddison, who is often ignored next to her genius little sister, Rebecca, and popular older sister, Lucy. After doodling in her Deutch notebook, she is sent to Susan Boones for art lessons, which changes her life. Another big event is that she saves the president from being killed. (No I am not spoiling. This is all on the cover.) :) I highly recommend the book! Enjoy!

Great story, easy read.

Meg Cabot just knows how to connect with her targeted audience. Love her. Always have and always will. ãfÂ ã Å,Ã â ¢Ã Å“ãfÂ ã Å,Ã â ¢Ã Å“ãfÂ ã Å,Ã â ^Ã â ^

Wonderful and easy read. Loved the characters and the style. Have read it a few times. It never gets old!

I liked the main character in the book, she seemed realistic and funny. I enjoyed her growing up.

The way I looked at this book. That is you need to do something else with your life. Even if it saving someone life doing the right thing to do.
