Imam Abdullah ibn Alawi al-Haddad was a late 17th- and early-18th-century Islamic scholar and spiritual master who lived in Yemen. To this day, he has a large following of admirers and is widely known for the breadth of his knowledge and the profundity of insight. Imam al-Haddad died in 1720.

This little book is great and goes with me everywhere

Hardback coverLong lasting durable

Great compilation of supplications based on invocations from the Holy Quran and the life of the beloved messenger of Allah, Muhammad, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. The reminders found herein serve greatly in grounding the believer in convictions and protect him/her from sin.

I've used the litany in this book for the past 6+ years. Alhamdo lilaah(swt), I take benefit from this all day long and feel a void if I miss reciting the prayers in it. May Allaah(swt) bless our beloved Prophet Muhammad(SAW), his followers, and the scholars who were a means in transmitting and compiling these invocations.
