Grade 6 Up "Kaitlin Burke is an overworked teen celebrity who thinks it would be cool to be ordinary for a couple of months. She also wants to get away from her competitive costar, Sky Mackenzie, who has been making her life difficult. After a bit of brainstorming, she decides to enroll, incognito, in her friend Liz's high school. During the next few weeks, she discovers how nice it is to have friends who like her for who she is "or appears to be" rather than because she's famous. She even starts a relationship with Austin, a nice boy who, ironically, has a crush on Kaitlin Burke, but hasn't a clue that he's dating her. Things go awry when Sky is asked to host the school's spring fling, which has a Hollywood theme. Everyone dresses as a celebrity, and Kaitlin ends up going as herself. While at the dance, Sky nastily unveils Kaitlin's secret. It's not surprising that her friends, especially Austin, feel betrayed, but she manages to redeem herself in the end. The protagonist is kind, unspoiled, and upstanding "refreshingly different from the norm. Fans of Meg Cabot's

At last! A witty, entertaining and refreshingly honest take on what it's really like to be a celebrity 'It girl' #NAME?

Kaitlin Burke is an exemplary teenager: she is unfailingly courteous, kind and considerate of the feelings of others. It is hard not to be a little bit cynical about that, though. This is a girl who has been featured in a popular and long-running television series since she was a toddler. She has had big-screen success, and she is well-respected by her peers. She lives a largely programmed and sheltered existence, and she is restless for opportunities to experience new things. She is loved by her family, but it is also true that they tend to exploit her and sometimes treat her as a commodity. It just seems unrealistic that she is so lacking in vanity and arrogance. Still, I had no problem overlooking this quibble and accepting the proposition that Kaitlin has overcome the traps of temptation that have destroyed so many that live privileged existences. In addition to an innate decency, she has the benefit of a small group of intensely loyal friends who never engage in cheap flattery. The reader will like those friends, and, like them, he or she will like Kaitlin. Kaitlin wishes to live life as a "normal" teenage girl for a short time, and she concocts a plan to enroll in the high school attended by her only non-celeb friend, Liz. She completely disguises herself and establishes a false identity as a recent immigrant from Britain. The bulk of the book comprises her adventures in high school and the important life lessons that she learns. The reader will probably anticipate the climactic highlight of her experiment before she does, but that recognition in no way lessens the pleasure of reading it. When I finished, I was somewhat surprised to realize how much I had enjoyed the book. The plot is entertaining, the characters are delightful, and the writing is clever and breezy. I am going to read the remaining books in the series.

this is the awesomest book ive read i read it like a hundred times this book is about a 16 year old movie star named kaitlyn who goes to school in disguise. she meets a guy named austin and she really likes him. they go to a dance together but kaitlyns enemy and costar finds out that shes what shes doing and tells the whole school. austin gets mad and brakes up with her but then decides he actually still likes her. the kiss, kaitlyn gets a part in a movie she wants to be in and the story ends.

BEST. BOOK. EVER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! i bet that austin looks like niall horan or ross lynch or someone like that.

I totally love this book. It's like my fave book ever. It's a total page turner, and it totally teaches an important life lesson: Don't let ANYONE bring you down, no matter what. In fact, two: There is no perfect life. You just need to enjoy what you have. Again, I LOVE this book!

Very good joy read wish it was longer because I finished it in one day, why is it cheaper to get the paper back book instead of the kindle version.

This book was very entertaining .it covers everything teen wishes she were and it was just amusing.
I can't wait to read the next book in this series!

It's so realistic. I really want to be an actress so this book was really good. Being an actress is my dream so now I know (kinda) what to expect if my dream comes true

This series really is such a good one! It kind of gives insight for normal people on how celebrities, actresses and actors live. On the fourth one and it just keeps getting better!
