For over twenty-five years, Ava Sturgeon has helped young women ages twelve to twenty-two embrace the privileges and responsibilities of following Christ. As a career high school teacher, she's seen their struggles. As a longtime facilitator for her church's youth and college studies, she's also seen their hope. Ava's Bible study A Daughter's Worth (2006) guides young women toward their Heavenly Father's acceptance. A Daughter's Heart (2011) challenges readers to not only think on God's holiness but also to respond. I use this in mentoring teens. It is perfect for new believers and those who have been in church their whole life. Each chapter is formatted great for reading and discussion. The questions are deep and get to the heart enough that I am able to find ways to minister to each girl in their specific area of need. Highly recommend!

I used this with a group of 10-12 high school girls for a summer devotional. We met each week and talked about a different chapter. The chapters were engaging, the girls liked that they got to write in it and answer questions ahead of time, and the discussions were fun. I highly recommend it!

I used this book in a bible study for middle school girls. I think every girl and their mother should read it. Wonderful insight into the issues of being a girl or teenage girl.

Ordered for 9 @ 10 year old granddaughters and they love them.

This devotion book is in depth and amazing. I'm a teacher at Christian school, and every week we group with students to have devotion. My girls have already been touched by the questions it asks. Excellent for personal or group devotions!

I have searched for an appropriate devotional to do with my young friend from church. Her homelife is troublesome violent and unstable. So my search for the perfect study has been exhaustive. I've actually purchased several others. This one is perfect. I'm trusting the Lord to transform both our lives using His Word and A Daughters Worth. I highly recommend this devotional.

Currently I am doing this study with a group of high school girls. I have had almost total participation. They all seem eager to learn about what God wants for them, not what the world has for them! I would recommend it for a beginner group!

Great group study. I only have 3 weeks left with the youth group in my church doing this study and I love it! I really wanted a study that would touch on lots of different areas and I believe this covers most of them. I think it's great especially for our youth group who busses in lots of kids who's parents aren't living a Christian lifestyle in front of them. I've really appreciated having this as a guide for our group studies.
