Larry Newman is the Founder and Director of Children's Music Workshop. He holds a Bachelor of Music Education, cum laude degree from Temple University's College of Music, a California teaching credential and a Master of Arts in Music Performance from Eastern Illinois University. Formerly an instrumental music teacher in the Philadelphia School District, Los Angeles Unified School District, and Santa Monica-Malibu Public Schools, Mr. Newman has supervised music programs in more than eighty public and private institutions from the Kindergarten through college levels. His rich diversity of experience includes schools from East L.A. to Malibu and from South Central L.A. to the San Fernando Valley. Larry Newman was the recipient of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences' 62nd Annual Los Angeles area Emmy award for Children/Youth Programming. Mr Newman wrote, directed and produced the All Schools Elementary Honor Orchestra shows which have aired nationally and feature students from more than two dozen Children's Music Workshop school programs. This was Mr. Newman's third Emmy win. He also received Emmys in 2009 and 2008 for those honor orchestra broadcasts and was most recently nominated in 2011 for a fourth Emmy for Orchestra Kids 2010. In 2009, Mr. Newman was honored by the Los Angeles City Council at City Hall for his contributions to music education in Los Angeles. He was also featured on CityView's Channel 35 series, "Faces of LA". Mr. Newman received the 2006 Lori Petrick Excellence in Education Award from the Palisades Charter Schools Foundation. The award is underwritten by the Boone Foundation - a philanthropic group whose mission is to support "passionate people who provide excellent programs to youth". Larry Newman was also one of 40 teachers nominated for the 2007 25th Annual BRAVO Award, established in 1982 by the Music Center of Los Angeles County to recognize individuals for innovation and excellence in arts education. Mr. Newman is author of the Recorder Fun Book - one of the top classroom recorder methods in the country. It is used in hundreds of elementary schools throughout the United States. He is also the author of the Violin Fun Book and Beginning Band Fun Books - group method books used in all Children's Music Workshop music programs. This is a wonderful book ! I have been teaching Private trumpet lessons here in Florida for the past 36 years and have been looking for a book like this all of that time ! This book is perfect to get a new student playing melodies and reading music at a very early stage. it is excellent ! Previously I had to write my own elementary simple songs for beginning students to augment the material that is usually contained in the elementary method books. This book saves a teacher a lot of time. I love it ! Next I'll be ordering the elementary duet book. I can't wait to get it ! Great job Larry ! keep em comin ! Bob Roma (Trumpet Teacher) Palm Bay, Florida

No excuses not to practice here. The book includes the same songs twice: once with the names of the notes visible, and again without the names of the keys visible. Beginning students can start playing right away. No more of "I don't know that note," or "I don't remember what note that is." When my student is able to read music well, I will cover the notes to help him speed up memory of music notes. However, in the meantime, he is playing and enjoying the experience! Worth the money.

As a teacher, I love the size of the staves and notes in this book. But, it has no fingering chart or diagram of the flute in it, no reminder of note values or rests. I wish these were included! It is 70 simple songs which are great for beginning flute students. If you are looking for just a practice book of songs, this would be a great choice.

My beginning band students love this books because of the two sections - one with letters inside the noteheads and one without. Kids who can read can sit next to kids who don't and they all play together without frustration!

I have learned to play more than ten songs from this book, I love this book, and planned to purchase many more of these.

Perfect for my 9 year old. He practices his trumpet more since he received the book!

Great!

This is a great beginners book for anyone wanting to play the trumpet.
