Just what we were looking for Without question, the best NC Road Atlas and County Guide. A terrific, low-cost investment for anyone planning to visitor relocate to NC -- take it from an "out-of-towner". The only room for improvement would be a spiral binding.

I was excited to get this comprehensive atlas of NC (as a gift) after moving here in the fall.

Unfortunately, this book was disappointing because of its very non-intuitive organization. Confusing indexing/grid system/ etc. Very hard to find a county/town/park etc. even when you know what you are looking for. I'd recommend going with a NC Rand McNally map from a gas station. The one redeeming point is that if you can find the section you're looking for the book provides very detailed info..
