Be The One: Six True Stories Of Teens Overcoming Hardship With Hope

Synopsis

Emmy Awardâ “winning ABC News chief national correspondent and Nightline coanchor, Byron Pitts shares the heartbreakin and inspiring stories of six young people who overcame impossible circumstances with extraordinary perseverance. Abuse. Bullying. War. Drug Addiction. Mental Illness. Violence. None of these should be realities for anyone, much less a young person. But for some it is the only reality they have ever known. In these dark circumstances, six teens needed someone to â œbe the oneâ • for themâ “the hero to help them back into the light. For Tania, Mason, Pappy, Michaela, Ryan, and Tyton, that hero was themselves. Through stirring interviews and his award-winning storytelling, Byron Pitts brings the struggles and triumphs of these everyday heroes to teens just like them, encouraging all of us to be the source of inspiration in our own lives and to appreciate the lives of others around us.

Customer Reviews

"Although the stories are heartbreakin, they also offer solace and hope to other youth who may be suffering through similar experiences." (Kirkus Reviews February 15, 2017)"Reads like an engrossing news program...Uplifting in its message and captivating in its content, this book goes beyond typical hero worship to explore the notion of role models in modern society." (Booklist April 15, 2017)"Pittsâ ™s sensitive storytelling and deep empathy for young people provide the backdrop for these compelling narratives." (School Library Journal April 2017)

Byron PittsÂ is a multipleÂ Emmy Awardâ “winning journalist known for his thoughtful storytelling, on-the-ground reporting, and in-depth interviews. A news veteran with over thirty years of experience, Mr. Pitts has traveled around the world to cover some of the biggest news stories of our time including the Florida presidential recount, the tsunami inÂ Indonesia, the refugee crisis inÂ Kosovo, and the Boston marathon bombing investigation. He joined ABC News in April 2013 as anchor and Chief National Correspondent covering national news stories and in-depth features for all broadcasts and platforms includingÂ Good Morning America,Â World News withÂ Diane Sawyer,Â Nightline,Â This Week, 20/20, and ABCNews.com, and was named ABC NewsÂ Nightline coanchor in 2014. Prior to joining ABC News, Mr. Pitts spent fifteen years at CBS News where he served as Chief National Correspondent forÂ The CBS Evening News, filed regularly forÂ 60 Minutes, and won an Emmy for his coverage of the 9/11 terrorist attacks. He was named the National Association of Black Journalists Journalist of the Year in 2002. His 2009 memoir,Â Step Out on Nothing: How Faith and Family Helped Me Conquer Lifeâ ™s ChallengesÂ chronicled his journey overcoming illiteracy and a stutter to become a journalist. Mr. Pitts is a native of Baltimore, Maryland, and currently lives in New York City.

Gave this book to a graduate struggling with Identity. Was hoping he'd see that tough times come in all packages. Tools to overcome work in every aspect of life. He said he liked it & helped with perception. Saw the writer on "The View", and I was inspired to help him feel valued.

This book was amazing! Each story was better than the one before it. Every teen needs to read this book.

Great book! My 14 year old granddaughter is reading this as part of her summer reading plan. It was part of an 8th grade graduation gift for her. A positive and rewarding read. Thank you for the great price, availability, and fast delivery!

Fantastic stories. I think that at some degree, we can all relate.

Got this for a troubled teen and she loved it. It speaks to her and gives her insight.

really encouraging stories my teenage granddaughter was inspired and enjoyed the stories

Great, honest, insightful book.

Bought 3 copies and the granddaughters were here a week and formed their own book club. They read and discussed each chapter.
