Customer Reviews

Yes!

Well done, guys. The book's is a must if you're looking to boost your Star Wars RPG campaign to a deep new level of Force powers and background for them. This later aspect is to me the most important because it will help the GMs spice and consolidate their stories and make the players and the GMs have more fun... That's the point!

I ordered this for my son who is a big Star Wars fan and he loved it.

Provides a large number of new Force powers. Though I personally modify them because I don't agree with all of them, overall they are great additions. In addition, they provide many ideas for a Force-centered campaign.

I get a LOT of Star wars merchandise and this is an excellent product. It's increased the experience for my Jedi players and increased the depth of my Sith. A great Gamemaster and player tool alike.

This was ordered NEW, as in looks new. When this was received, it looked like they did not care how the book looked. I mean, I had seen used copies in better shape! And when I had contacted them, they gave me a "brick and mortar" excuse. No apologies or means of fixing this issue. So the book (and another book) were returned. And to this date, they are still one of the last companies I will buy from.

I was disappointed in how little content this book actually has. I was expecting a full-fledged campaign guide (a la KOTOR) and this was sorely lacking. Just picking it up, it feels light. I'm a gamer from way back. WAY back. I like to have an actual book to thumb through and hold. That being said, it's not special. I am sad I made the decision to buy the hard copy instead of just finding the .PDF online. While the physical quality of the book (binding, art) is up to the standards set by the core rule book and the rest of the guides (that is to say: excellent), I can't but be made sad every time I hold it and realize that it's 50-80 pages lighter than I would be happy with. There is just not enough content to warrant the cost of this book. Go to a gaming store. Look at it. Hold it. Make that decision yourself. If I knew then what I knew now, I wouldn't have bought this.

Again, USPS employee left it outside my door for it to be stolen and I never got to enjoy it with my gamers.
