Customer Reviews

This is a small book, but contains everything it needs to fit the title. The author has published several others about writing, and they are very good. I bought this for a gift for a close friend who has always wanted to write romance novels. I am certain she will be thrilled, and will write her own review. The cover is beautiful, too, and the information within the book is just what a new author needs to get started. after looking through the book I am already a fan of the author.
