The Worst Of WCW Volume 2: We're Taking Over

Synopsis

Let's not mince words: WCW had an atrociously bad first half of the 90s, and it seemed like nothing they tried could bring them the ratings and success they so badly wanted. That all changed when the NWO invasion finally gave WCW the boost they needed, and for two years, WCW rode the NWO to a seemingly insurmountable ratings lead over the WWF. But since this IS WCW we're talking about here, the whole thing eventually came spiraling back to Earth in dramatic fashion thanks to the usual mismanagement and backstage politics. This book tells the story of how WCW improbably rose to the very pinnacle of the wrestling business, then managed to screw up the biggest, surefire moneymaking storyline they ever had. This book also includes the following bonus features: -WCW In The Mid 90s: The Supporting Cast-The 5 Biggest "Only In WCW" Moments Of The Mid-90s This book also includes the following bonus titles: -Wrestling History Revisited: What If The WWF Bought WCW In 1988? -Pro Wrestling Stars Of The 90s Volume 4: The Ultimate Warrior
