Customer Reviews

The worst ebook I ever bought. The music might be good but spreading the notes over so many pages (one "line" per page) makes it so unpractical. I'm not sure if I can ask for a refund or to replace this ebook it with a printed version. As is, it is a waste of money; I should have downloaded the notes as real music sheets for free.

I would have to say it is geared a little toward the intermediate student . For us just learning it is a little tough. But I would buy it again.

Husband's Christmas gift. These pieces are difficult, with some 32nd notes, but great for intermediate or advanced guitar players with experience reading music scores and not just chords.

These easy to intermediate pieces are a must for the person who is interested in learning the power of the guitar for projecting the beauty of a piece of music. Beginning guitarist must learn these great pieces! Mr. Howard Wallach is a skillful arranger for the guitar and you should take advantage of his ability!

Granted, the songs in here are a bit more difficult than I expected, they're beautiful. It's unlikely that you'll find a book where you like every song, but this one comes pretty close. Fantastic.

guess I didn't read the add properly. I was looking for "Historia de un Amore" by Carlos Almaran. Its ok anyway I like whats in it

This book is really fun to play from. I'm only on the second song and the book is worth it already. These are Spanish pieces, but classical in technique, not flamenco. Easy to play tabs, and standard notation for the rhythm.

tabs don't match the songs at all
