Flowers For Jesus: A Story Of Therese Of Lisieux As A Young Girl

Synopsis

Little ThErEse Martin could be a very stubborn young girl. All too often, if someone wanted her to say "yes," she wanted to say "no"! But then, as she is preparing for her First Communion, ThErEse discovers a way to turn her everyday trials and tribulations into something beautiful for Jesus. Join ThErEse (and her family) as she learns to "gather roses from amid thorns." With simple storytelling and vibrant watercolors, Flowers for Jesus introduces children to a saint they can relate to: the young ThErEse of Lisieux, before she became known the world over as a spiritual master. Flowers for Jesus draws on her autobiography, Story of a Soul, to relate a key aspect of ThErEse's "Little Way" in language that children can understand and appreciate. The book concludes with biographical information about ThErEse, as well as the excerpt from Story of a Soul on which Flowers for Jesus is based.

Customer Reviews

What a simply written but beautiful story that is perfect for little girls preparing for first communion (or any girl who loves Jesus). Even older girls will enjoy the wonderful illustrations and simple story line - take our little trials and pains and give them all to Jesus. I plan to share with my young girls and use it as a supplement to first holy communion preparation.
