A Prairie Home Companion Pretty Good Joke Book 6th Edition

Synopsis

Over 2,200 Jokes from America's favorite live radio show A treasury of hilarity from Garrison Keillor and the cast of public radio's A Prairie Home Companion. A guy walks into a bar. Eight Canada Geese walk into a bar. A termite jumps up on the bar and asks, "Where is the bar tender?" • Drum roll. The Sixth Edition of the perennially popular Pretty Good Joke Book is everything the first five were and more. More puns, one-liners, light bulb jokes, knock-knock jokes, and third-grader jokes (have you heard the one about Elvis Parsley?). More religion jokes, political jokes, lawyer jokes, blonde jokes, and jokes in questionable taste (Why did the urologist lose his license? He got in trouble with his peers). More jokes about chickens, relationships, and senior moments (The nice thing about Alzheimer's is you can enjoy the same jokes again and again). It all started back in 1996, when A Prairie Home Companion fans laughed themselves silly during the first Joke Show. The broadcast was such a hit that it became an almost-annual gagfest. Then fans wanted to read the jokes, share them, and pass them around, and the first Pretty Good Joke Book was born. With over 200 new and updated jokes, the latest edition promises countless giggles, chortles, and guffaws anyone fans of the radio show or not will enjoy.

Garrison Keillor is America's favorite storyteller. For more than 35 years, as the host of A Prairie Home Companion, he has captivated millions of listeners with his weekly News from Lake Wobegon monologues. A Prairie Home Companion is heard on hundreds of public radio stations, as well as America One, the Armed Forces Networks, Sirius Satellite Radio, and via a live audio webcast. Keillor is also the author of several books and a frequent contributor to national publications including Time, The New Yorker, and National Geographic, in addition to writing his own syndicated column. He has been awarded a National Humanities Medal from the National Endowment of the Humanities. When not touring, he resides in St. Paul, Minnesota.

I have long enjoyed the PHC radio broadcasts, have attended one at Ravinia Pavillion, read several of his books and have sent his books as gifts. His Writer's Almanac used to make me almost late in arrival every morning at the office. The wide range of collected material for PGJB will also appeal to a most wide audience, but not all to everybody. I have found if I read a section of puns, many most clever, it gets to be a bit much in a short period of time. Most will agree consuming a little chocolate is most pleasing. I suspect trying to eat a couple of pounds of even the world's gretest cholocate in a short period could be a real trial.

I don't know about anybody else but I have had a blast reading most of these jokes! Sure a lot of them are corny but if they make me laugh that is good. I have even read some to my 88 yo mom over the phone and she loved them!

I bought this for my 10 year old grandson - didn't realize it had some adults only jokes in it.....but it was fun to read!

Purchased two editions of this for my son who has been requested to stop reading them because his laughter is disturbing others. They are NOT for children without supervision (my son is 36), but many can be told to kids...

This is fun reading. I'm enjoying a few pages at a time, just as a break from chores.

This book keeps getting better and better. Joke you can tell your children and some others. Absolutely hilarious.

Gramps, 83, enjoys these jokes. I enjoy seeing Gramps laugh and hearing him read to me. Having the book in our home is good fun for us all.

It is really not too different from the previous version. most of the same old stuff
